Re: Appeal of Civil Society, Human Rights Activists and Victim Community
on Transitional Justice Process in Nepal

I would like to submit, as enclosed, the position of Civil Society, Human Rights Activists and Victim Community on the issues related to recent contentious developments on transitional justice process in Nepal.

We are really worried by the political attempts to derail the transitional justice process and therefore would like to sincerely request for adequate initiation from the United Nations' concerned agencies to ensure ending of impunity and fulfillment of victims' right to truth, justice and reparation.

Enclosed:

3. Appeal of Civil Society, Human Rights Activists and Victim Community against the Conspiracy to Provide Immunity to Criminals of War Crimes, Crimes against Humanity and Serious Crimes, 18 November 2018, Kathmandu
4. Statement of Victim Community on Transitional Justice, 24 November 2018, Kathmandu

Sincerely,

Indra Prasad Aryal
Chairperson, Human Rights Organization of Nepal (HURON)
(On behalf of Civil Society, Human Rights Activists and Victim Community)
